SUPPLEMENT: DETAILS OF VIOLATION

FACTS STATED ON INFORMATION AND BELIEF:

1. Benjamin Lamb ("Respondent") is a process server individual ("PSI") licensed by the New York City Department of Consumer and Worker Protection ("DCWP" or the "Department").
2. On June 1, 2022, the Department served Respondent with a subpoena duces tecum (the "Subpoena").
3. The Subpoena required that Respondent produce to the Department various documents from the month of March 2022 (the "Relevant Period").
4. The Respondent produced documents in response to the Subpoena, including his "electronic record logbook" maintained via an electronic record-keeping system ("logbook") and affidavits of service filed in court related to services during the Relevant Period.
5. Respondent did not set forth in his logbook the nature of the papers served in his logbook entry for this service [line 97]:

Roto Rooter v. Gavin Adams, Index No. 6014133/2021 (Sup. Ct., Suffolk Co.): service on defendant Gavin Adams on March 22, 2022, at 2:55 pm (substitute service).

(According to the Respondent's affidavit of service, the nature of the papers served was "Subpoena Duce Tecum to Take Deposition of a Witness.")

6. According to Respondent's affidavit of service, on March 23, 2022, at 11:17 a.m., Respondent served the Summons and Verified Complaint in the case of Jose Collado et al. v. Ramessi Aponte, Index No. 802546/2022E (Sup. Ct., Bronx Co.) on the defendant (substitute service by delivery to one "██████████").
7. Respondent's logbook, which, on its face, appears kept in strict chronological date and time order, consistently states that Respondent made this delivery at the same date and time.
8. But Respondent's GPS logbook, also kept in strict chronological date and time order, inconsistently states that Respondent made this delivery on the day previous, on March 22, 2022, at 11:20 a.m.
9. The Department infers that Respondent incorrectly stated in his affidavit of service and logbook the date/time that he made this service delivery.
10. In the alternative, if Respondent's affidavit of service and logbook is accepted to be accurate as to the actual date/time of service, Respondent failed to use his GPS device to make an electronic record of the GPS location and time of the effected service immediately after effecting service.
11. Respondent did not include his license number on various affidavits signed by him, including, but not limited to:

SUMMONS NUMBER: 220204HR

- B. Jeremy Blandino v. Richard Saldana Gonzalez et al., Index No. 159845/2021 (Sup. Ct., N.Y. Co.): service of the summons and verified complaint and related papers on defendant [REDACTED] (substitute service) on March 14, 2022.
- C. Anna Ben Yishai v. Yechiel Ben Yishai, Index No. 711005/2020 (Supreme Ct., Queens Co.); service of order to show cause and related papers on plaintiff Anna Ben-Yishai (personal delivery) on March 14, 2022.

- C. Under 6 RCNY § 2-233b(a)(2)(i), “[o]n every occasion that a process server attempts or effects service of process, the process server must ensure that the mobile device makes an electronic record of the GPS location, time and date of the attempted or effected service immediately after attempting or effecting service.”
- D. Under 6 RCNY § 2-234, a licensed process server must “at all times strictly and promptly comply to all laws, rules, regulations, and requirements of the federal, state and municipal authorities relating to the conduct of licensees and the service of process in the State of New York and the preparation, notarization and filing of affidavits of service and other documents....” Under New York law, a process server may not make a false statement in an affidavit of service.

3. As set forth in paragraphs 6-9 of the "Facts" section, Respondent violated 6 RCNY § 2-234 by making a false statement in his affidavit of service (one count).
4. Alternatively, as set forth in paragraphs 6-10 of the "Facts" section, Respondent violated 6 RCNY § 6 RCNY § 2-2-233b(a)(2)(i) by failing to make a GPS record of service immediately after effecting service (one count).
5. As set forth in paragraph 11 of the "Facts" section, Respondent violated 6 RCNY § 2-235 by not including his license number on his affidavits of service (one count).

RELIEF SOUGHT
